

Camas Mill Timeline

1884

Columbia River Paper Company was formed.

1905

Crown Paper Company of Oregon City merges with Columbia River Paper Company to form Crown Columbia Paper Company.

1914

Crown Columbia merges with Willamette Paper to form Crown Willamette Paper Company, the second largest papermaker in the world.

1928

Crown Willamette merges with Zellerbach Paper to become Crown Zellerbach.

1941

The machine shops were converted to manufacture shipyard parts for World War II.

1986

The Camas Mill becomes a subsidiary of James River Corporation.

1997

James River merges with Fort Howard to become Fort James Corporation.

2000

Georgia-Pacific acquires the Fort James Corporation.

2005

Koch Industries, Inc. purchases Georgia-Pacific.