

GP Mill Cleanup Community Advisory Group
Public members
April Berlin	Corporate project manager and communicator, background in finance regulatory compliance / organization, strong passion in protecting the environment and people.
Marquita Call	Lifelong resident and business owner with strong ties throughout the community and downtown business district
Dr. Kalani Cox	Director of a state agency, downtown resident, parent of young children, pediatric and educational audiologist working closely with differently abled community in our area
Isaac Dizon	Lifelong resident, college student and CHS grad with strong interest in community service and future of Camas, senior project work with City of Camas
Randal Friedman	New to Camas with expertise in industrial site cleanup projects, engaged in their new community through many local connections and activities
Mark Nickerson	Longtime resident, professional and volunteer experience with state transportation projects, city planning and paper mill site reclamation
Martin Snell	Longtime resident with professional city and county planning and community development background with personal and family mill employment experience.
Steve Young	Camas resident, former long-term employees Environmental Director with extensive technical expertise in environmental topics and Ecology interactions
Agency representative members
Caroline Mercury	CAG Chair: DCA board member 12 yrs, former mill employee with experience in papermaking/pulping processes and compliance/regulations
Carrie Schulstad	DCA Executive Director: coordinates CAG activities with Ecology staff, extensive experience in community engagement and communications, Camas resident with many community service activities
Tim Hein	Camas city council liaison: Camas resident, background in executive leadership, planning, budgeting and other community service areas
Leslie Lewallen	Camas city council alternate: Camas resident, background in law with emphasis on land use, property rights and environmental law
Dave Ripp	Port of Camas-Washougal liaison: CEO of Port since 2008, extensive cleanup, redevelopment and future visioning experience, area resident active in community projects
Larry Keister	Port of Camas-Washougal alternate: area resident, Port commissioner with background in Ecology processes, site cleanup and redevelopment and many community service activities