

Enjoy the Murals in Downtown Camas!

- Camas Icons—a colorful depiction of many of the iconic features and buildings in Camas and is on the Birch St. side of the Camas Antiques building. So much detail! Look for the bees, geese, American Empress, cemetery, the year this was painted and even Sasquatch! This mural was a Camas High School Senior Project designed by Kayla Ramirez and her friend. Kayla lovingly painted it to completion along with mentor and local artist, Anna Norris. (Painted in 2022)
- OF Johnson Building Mural—Mural depicting the 300 block of 4th Ave. Painted by Dennis McLean in 2005. (located inside)
- Camas Love Mural - Designed and painted by Hailee Parman, for her senior project. The mural is on 5th Avenue near Cedar St. completed in 2020.
- We're All Connected - Designed and painted by Kate Patrick. Mural depicts the PNW and our connectedness in Camas.
- Camas Lilies - These lilies are a grand tribute to our town's namesake on the oldest commercial building in Downtown Camas. Painted by Anna Norris in 2017.
- Natalia's Cafe Mural - Painted by Anna Norris in 2020 and depicts a well-known, beautiful downtown streetscape.
- Living New Deal - The post office contains a Section of Fine Arts mural by Douglas Nicholson, Beginning of a New World, 1941, Egg Tempera on Wall.
- Coffee Garden Mural - This charming and whimsical mural was painted by Jenn Mansur in 2017.
- Historic Camas Mural - Designed and painted by Maria Grazia Repetto in 2013. This mural is proudly displayed above the entrance to the Camas Art Gallery and is of the Camas Paper Mill, circa 1900.
- Cats at Lutz - Painted by Anna Norris in 2017. These cats are in memory and honor of the cats Lutz Hardware has had to greet customers over the years - Coaster, Socket and Dallas.
- Street Emblems - In 2016, Camas High School sophomores of the Integrated Arts & Academics program, helped to paint the art designed by their peer, Brianna Cloutier, who was also there to help. A contest had been held when the students were freshmen to create the design for the DCA . The mural adds vibrancy and sense of place on either side of the location of the Camas Farmer's Market.
- Wolves on the Run - Painted by Travis London in 2016.
- Alan Jeff's Mural (Young's Deli) - The mural was painted by Alan Jeffs at Young's Deli on 6th Avenue in 2018 and pays respect to the history of Camas and the region.
